About the Eastside Reengagement Center

The ERC is a partnership between Friends of Youth, Lake Washington Institute of Technology and Seattle Education Access. The goal of the ERC is to help young adults in East King County gain access to the education and employment services they need in order to succeed in college or vocational training and ultimately a career. The ERC provides a supportive environment and allows students to address their barriers to academic and vocational success while working towards earning their GED and increasing their basic skills. The ERC provides instructional services including but not limited to:

- Academic and high school equivalency preparation
- Individualized instruction based on students' needs and interests
- Financial assistance with testing costs, transportation
- Career counseling and higher education exploration
- College navigation and FAFSA assistance
