Friends of Youth Welcomes Returning Board Members Ellen Boyer and William Savoy

Kirkland, WA—Friends of Youth is pleased to welcome returning board members Ellen Boyer and William Savoy. Both Boyer and Savoy have previously served on the Friends of Youth Board of Directors and are committed supporters of the agency’s work.

- Ellen Boyer is the Chief Financial Officer of Seattle-based business and technology consulting firm Logic20/20, Inc. Boyer is the granddaughter of one of the founding members of Friends of Youth and currently serves on the agency’s finance committee.
- William Savoy is the former President of Vulcan, Inc. Savoy recently completed a six year tenure on the Board of Directors of the Friends of Youth Foundation, serving as Board Chair for the last several years of his service.

“We are so excited to have Ellen and Bill rejoin our Board,” said Friends of Youth President and CEO Terry Pottmeyer. “They both bring a clear understanding of our work and the importance of the Board to the agency’s success.”

Friends of Youth provides a comprehensive range of therapeutic services for youth, young adults and their families to improve their emotional stability and self-sufficiency. With 63 years of experience, 22 program sites and services in 18 cities, we provide safe places and emotional support for youth facing challenging circumstances. Our vision is that all youth have every opportunity to succeed, and our services are designed to fulfill that vision. For more information, visit www.friendsofyouth.org.
